

CRAVE SING

Imagine yourself in a far-away land where the streets are pulsating with energy and the intense sights and smells of exotic flavors. That's the vibe in countless food courts throughout Asia. When I visited Singapore, I felt like I had reached foodie nirvana. All of the dishes that I crave from China, Vietnam, Thailand, India, and Malaysia were brought together in one beautiful place.

SING is a tribute to Singapore where we get to serve our favorite dishes inspired by this great melting pot of Asia. We hope that you'll try everything and that you, too, will come to crave SING.
